Call for 2013 APA Distinguished Professional Practice and Student Award Nominations

We are seeking nominations for the APA Distinguished Professional Practice and Student Awards and are asking for your help to disseminate the call for nominations. (Please see the information below)

The APA Distinguished Professional Practice and Student Awards are awarded each year by APA and the recipients receive an honorarium of $1,000; the opportunity to present an invited address at APA’s Annual Convention (2013 in Honolulu, HI); a waiver of convention registration fees; and reimbursement of up to $1,500 in expenses related to attendance at the convention.

There are several ways that you and your division can assist in this regard:

1. Distribute the information via your division listserv
2. Post the information on your division website
3. Publish the information in your division newsletter

Thank you for helping us get the word out on these Distinguished Professional Practice and Student Awards from APA. Your time and efforts are very much appreciated.

Regards,

Sheila Kerr, Governance Operations Assistant, APA Practice Directorate for Terry Gock, PhD, Chair, Board of Professional Affairs (BPA)

Please Consider Nominating a Colleague, a Student, or Yourself
APA Award for Distinguished Professional Contributions to Applied Research
http://www.apa.org/about/awards/applied-research.aspx

APA Award for Distinguished Professional Contributions to Independent Practice
http://www.apa.org/about/awards/private-sector.aspx

APA Award for Distinguished Professional Contributions to Institutional Practice

APA/APAGS Award for Distinguished Graduate Student in Professional Psychology
http://www.apa.org/about/awards/grad-profpsyc.aspx

DEADLINE: June 1, 2012

The APA Distinguished Professional Practice and Student Awards are awarded each year by APA and the recipients receive an honorarium of $1,000; the opportunity to present an invited address at APA’s Annual Convention (2013 in Honolulu, HI); a waiver of convention registration fees; and reimbursement of up to $1,500 in expenses related to attendance at the convention.

For questions, please contact Sheila Kerr at (202) 336-5878 or skerr@apa.org